

HEADQUARTERS 372ND INFANTRY (Rifle)
OFFICE OF THE REGIMENTAL COMMANDER

Fort Dix, N. J.,
March 28, 1941.

Mrs. Effa Manley,
101 Montgomery Street,
Newark, New Jersey

Dear Mrs. Manley:-

Your letter dated March 24, 1941, extending an invitation to participate in the opening day ceremony of your Baseball League on May 11th, 1941, is acknowledged.

Colonel Gilbert has asked me to express his sincere appreciation for your thought, and to assure you that every effort will be made to co-operate, if possible.

You are advised however, that the question of transportation, and authority to take so large a group from the Post, must of necessity, be taken up with higher headquarters, on whose decision will govern our acceptance.

The details of your plan will be taken up at once with Post Headquarters, and if favorably considered, the Colonel will be happy to talk with you in person as suggested, in which event you will be advised in sufficient time to make the appointment.

Please accept my personal regards.

Sincerely,

Alexander R. Davis
